

Create an activity with an edittext for each item listed below. On a button click, have the values from the edit text save to an Person Object. populate text views for each of the items below from the person object. (You have to make the person class)

First Name

Last Name

Street Address

City

State

Zip

This creates a data class person, has several text edits for the fields, accepts inputs and spits them out in the bottom.

